Introduction and Summary

The purpose of Skate Canada's Code of Ethics (the "Code") is to outline the organization's expectations and guiding principles, at all times, of all individuals of appropriate decision making, conduct, and behaviour within the Skate Canada community. The Code is our roadmap to maintaining the safety and well-being of all individuals to whom this Code applies within the Skate Canada community.

At Skate Canada, we are committed to our vision, mission, and core values. We never allow our ethics or integrity to be compromised by our desire to succeed, regardless of the circumstances of our organization.

Our mission is to be a leader in the delivery of quality skating programs and continuously develop champions. It is a mission that sets the bar high, as too does this Code. As we continue to progress and execute against our organizational goals and the opportunities that lie ahead to meet this mission, we must also hold firm to our high standards for ethics.

Scope

This Code applies to all individuals, and this Code applies with retroactive effect.

This Code applies to any act, conduct, behaviour and/or matter that may arise during the business, activities, and events of Skate Canada, including but not limited to, competitions, events, practices, training camps, travel, the workplace environment, and meetings.

This Code may also apply to conduct, action and/or behaviour that occurs outside of Skate Canada business, activities, environment, and events, including without limitation competitions, practices, training camps, travel associated with Skate Canada activities, and any meetings with Skate Canada, when such conduct, action, and/or behaviour:

- adversely affects relationships within Skate Canada (and its work and sport environment)
- is detrimental to the image and reputation of Skate Canada
- could undermine the integrity of sport
- is sufficiently serious and significant as to be of general importance to skating and/or of general importance to the overall ability of Skate Canada to discharge its objectives
- has a serious and detrimental impact on another individual

Note: The physical location(s) of where the actual and/or suspected act, conduct and/or behaviour occurred is not determinative. The applicability of the individual's conduct outside of Skate Canada's business, activities, and events will be determined by Skate Canada at its sole discretion.

This Code enables the implementation of the Code of Ethics Appeal Procedure (Procedure), designed to set out the framework governing the appeal process.

This Code is to be read in conjunction with the Privacy Code, and all policies, procedures and documents under the National Safe Sport Program (including but not limited to the Misconduct Reporting and Resolution Policy, General Disputes and Resolution Policy, Incidents of Injury Reporting and Management Policy, Concussion Management Policy, Anti-Doping Policy, and the Equity, Diversity, and Inclusion Policy).

For employees of Skate Canada, in addition to the above noted policies, this Code is to be read in conjunction with the Code of Conduct, the Respectful Workplace Policy and procedure thereunder, the Privacy Policy, and the Raising Conduct and Ethical Concerns Policy.

For officers and directors of the Board of Skate Canada, in addition to the above noted policies, this Code is to be read in conjunction with the Code of Conduct, Conflict of Interest Governing Policy for Directors and Officers, the Privacy Policy and the Raising Conduct and Ethical Concerns Policy.

This Code does not apply to matters where there are other Skate Canada policies in place, including but not limited to the Anti-Doping Policy, the Athlete International Competition and Carding Selection Policy, and the Athlete International Competition and Carding Selection Appeal Procedure.

Guiding Principles

Skate Canada's vision, mission and values form the guiding principles and the building blocks on which this Code rests. Living up to them is an essential part of meeting our organizational strategic imperatives, maintaining our foundational elements, and safeguarding Skate Canada's integrity, reputation, and ethical practices. All individuals subject to this Code are expected to uphold and commit to the highest standards of behaviour to ensure the safety and well-being of all individuals, exemplified by conduct and written and oral communications, as outlined in the Code.

With respect to our Code of Ethics, these are some of the key ethical principles that guide our actions throughout this Code:

I. Act and behave with integrity

Integrity is the bedrock principle of our behaviour. It is through integrity that all individuals subject to this Code earn trust. Every individual is clear on the values of Skate Canada and will keep our commitments – to each other and to all of our stakeholders. Every individual will behave ethically, act with good judgment and avoid even the appearance of impropriety, ensuring fairness and impartiality.

II. Treat others with respect, dignity, and fairness

Every individual will treat one another with respect, fairness, and dignity. Every individual will value equity, diversity, and inclusion, and show due consideration for each other's opinions, perspectives, and uniqueness.

III. Supporting a safe environment

The safety and well-being of all individuals in the Skate Canada community is imperative. It is everyone's collective responsibility to comply with all Safe Sport policies, procedures, education requirements, and program delivery standards and protocols in support of a safe environment that is free from all forms of misconduct.

IV. Take Accountability

Every individual will bring their full energy, attention and commitment to their jobs/positions, skating, coaching, officiating, etc. Every individual is accountable for their actions. No individual will deliberately mislead or deceive. Every individual will seek clarification when uncertain and raise concerns when they suspect wrongdoing or a safety concern. All individuals to whom this Code applies have a responsibility to notify the organization through the appropriate reporting channel immediately of any violation or suspected violation of the Code. No individual shall retaliate against an individual who has reported an incident in good faith.

V. Commitment to Excellence

In performing their duties/function, each individual will pursue excellence and strive for continuous improvement.

VI. Exercise Good judgment

Every individual will think before they act and/or make decisions. When gauging appropriateness of a decision, an activity, or practice, each individual will be guided by their common sense and sound judgment.

- procedures were not followed as laid out in the Bylaws or approved policies of Skate Canada;
- a decision was influenced by bias, where bias is defined as a lack of neutrality to such an extent that the decision-maker is unable to consider other views, and/or that the decision was made on the basis or, or was significantly influenced by, factors unrelated to the substance or merits of the matter;

- Criminal offences for which the Appellant is seeking a criminal conviction
- Any decisions made under this Code
- Any other decisions dealt with under a Skate Canada policy where there is an appeal process

The individual appealing the decision will bear the onus of proof in the appeal, and must demonstrate, on a balance of probabilities, that the decision-maker has made an error as described in the Grounds for Appeal and that this error had, or may reasonably have had, a material effect on the decision or decision-maker. In addition, the individual appealing the decision must have abided by the terms of the resolution process in all respects, including complying with the confidentiality restrictions as outlined in this Code and submission of the appeal within the required timeline as outlined in the Procedure, failing which the appeal may be denied.

The Board will review the written Notice of Appeal and, at its sole discretion, determine if there are sufficient Grounds for Appeal. In fulfilling its duties and to maintain independence, the Board may engage an independent legal advisor to oversee the review process of the written Notice of Appeal, including but not limited to the screening and recommendation to the Board for final decision.
